"Why commutation is for the guilty, not for innocent men. No innocent man would want a commutation of sentece, when he was cnitted to his freedom.

The Question at Law. The Question at Law.

"The only question in Patrick's case now is. Does embalming fluid enter the lungs of a corpse? It was recently demonstrated before a large assemblage of reliable, competent men that it does enter the lungs.

"This proves that Rice could not have been killed in the manner stated at the trial. I have offered to secure a corpse and have demonstrated to the Governor himself that the embalming fluid enters the lungs. This was proved at the trial. It is been more than proved since. What trick wants is a trial at which he tains a full measure of justice, or i from Brooklyn called on Police Commissioner Bingham to-day to see if he would not stop the performance of a Thankagiving matinee of "The Clansman," the Rev. Thomas Dixon's well-advertised play, at the Broadway Theatre, in Brooklyn.

The Commissioner sent out word by Secretary Slattery that Second Deputy Commissioner O'Keeffe had seen the play last night, and as there was nothing immoral in it he would not interfere with its performance.

The colored deputation then left after toiling the reporters that there would be trouble a-plenty if the play was put on Thursday afternoon.
